

INFORMATION NOTE

Following the inauguration ceremony on April 28, 2018, the ethical facilitators; the president of the 4th Criminal Chamber Assoc. Prof. Dr. İbrahim Şahbaz, Bench Member of the 4th Civil Chamber Fatma Feyza Şahin, Bench Member of the 19th Civil Chamber Dudu İrem Toros, Deputy Secretary General Dr. Mustafa Saldırım, Rapporteur Judge of 18th Criminal Chamber Hüseyin Bakay and Rapporteur Judge of 2nd Civil Chamber Funda Tuner shared their knowledge and experiences about the judicial code of conduct with the students in the morning session.

On the same day, in the afternoon and the following day the facilitator students who have already completed their training discussed the compiled news and videos that do not comply with the judiciary ethics with the participants. 19 cases were discussed in this section and as a contribution to develop the ethical awareness of law students, the professional conducts of the judges that are not in compliance with the Court of Cassation Judicial Code of Conduct were evaluated.

In the afternoon session on April 29, 2018, “ethical facilitator” public prosecutors; Abdullah Aydın Kuyucu, İsmail Aydın, Halil İbrahim Çiftçi, Sacit Yılmaz, Şahika Onganer, Arif Altınkök, Halit Eriş, Yüksel Uralçin, Özkan Balcı ve Ahmet Karabulut lectured about the “Code of Conduct for Public Prosecutors of the Court of Cassation” that was adopted on October 19, 2017 under the patronage of the Chief Public Prosecutor Mehmet Akarca.

The lectures regarding “Code of Conduct for Staff of the Court of Cassation” was given by the facilitator staff: Gülay Keven, Sibel Elmacı, Seçkin Gül, Meliha Güvel, Nazan Dizbay, Esra Semen and Selma Dalkılıç

The course attendees received the Certificate of Attendance

Certificates of Attendance were given to all of the course attendees by the Public Prosecutors and Court Staff. The program ended with the clarinet recital of the artist Savaş Şeker.

Activities regarding “The Court of Cassation Judicial Code of Conduct Law Clinic” done in the scope of Istanbul Declaration on Transparency in the judicial Process and Istanbul Declaration Implementation Measures

The activities of the “The Court of Cassation Judicial Code of Conduct Law Clinic” are of great importance in terms of Istanbul Declaration on Transparency in the Judicial Process and the draft implementation measures developed on 20 October 2017 at the working group meeting attended by 5 international scholars. In Article 9 of the implementation measures, attention is drawn on to the importance of the support provided by courts to well-structured education programs and to that increasing and consolidating the rule of law and and respect for the duty of judiciary depends on understanding the legal principles and individual rights throughout generations . In this context, it is aimed that the activities of “The Court of Cassation Judicial Code of Conduct Law Clinic” will be a model for cooperation studies with other faculties of law. The results of “The Court of Cassation Judicial Code of Conduct Law Clinic”, as an example of the implementation of Article 9 of the Istanbul Declaration, is planned to be introduced to the high court presidents representing different legal systems from 5 continents in the summit that will be held in Istanbul on October 10-13, 2018, hosted by the Court of Cassation.